BRITISH LAUNCH OFFENSIVE

The Long Awaited Drive Against the Germans Begun in France

(Special to The Herald)

London, July 1.—Great Britain's long awaited offensive against the Germans in France has been launched. At the moment when Russia's mighty army is continuing its drive in the eastern theatre, and Italy is pouring its men forward against the Austrians, England is opening its terrible smash. For this attack Great Britain has been preparing for two years. Every effort of the late Lord Kitchener was directed toward gaining success in this plunge against the German lines. Lord Kitchener as well as other leaders of the Allies believed that the outcome of the war would be decided in the western theatre. The first attack of the British army made along a front 20 miles north of the Somme river, appears to have been completely successful.

Frederick Palmer, the noted American war correspondent, now at the British headquarters in France states that the English captured the German first line in their initial attack, together with many prisoners. The

SUM OF $300,000 FOR PORTSMOUTH

This Amount Inserted in Naval
Bill for New Machine Shop.

Through the efforts of Senators Johnson of Maine and Hollis of New Hampshire the senate naval committee have inserted in the naval appropriation bill the item for a new machine shop at the Portsmouth navy yard. The proposed building met the approval of Chief of Bureau of Yards and Docks and, if the senators from the two states are successful in getting the amount needed, the capacity of the local yard will be greatly increased.

The new shop is planned to be constructed on the site of building 18, the former steam engineering plant and would cost approximately $300,000.

The prospects in the senate are good relative to the additional appropriation for Portsmouth but it is hard to predict what the house will do with it. However, this is part of the preparedness program of the navy and should be allowed for the best interests of the government.

RECRUITS ARE COMING IN

First Regiment, N. H. N. G.,
Nearly Up to Full Strength.

(Special to The Herald)

Concord, July 1.—Recruits are now coming in for the 1st N. H. regiment with increasing numbers, due to the stimulation of recruiting by means of the "Flying Squadron," which is touring the northern part of the state. Today the battery was given the physical test and passed with flying colors. The hospital corps is also up to the quota by transfers and recruits. The signal corps is yet in need of men. It is expected the N. H. troops will enter either Monday or Tuesday.

ASK GOVERNMENT TO INTERCEDE

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, July 1.—Hundreds of telegrams today continued to come to President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing asking that this government intercede in an effort to have Great Britain commute the death sentence imposed upon Sir Roger Casement. The telegrams were signed with names that indicated that many of them were not from Irish or German sympathizers.

THE MILITIA REACHES BORDER

New England Forces the First to Arrive at Texas Border.

El Paso, July 1.—Militia forces have begun to reach the border. Direct orders from Secretary of War Baker throw a shade of secrecy about the movement of the troops and forbade the publication of the number and disposition of the state guardmen, but it can be stated that the New England forces were the first to reach the border. Militia trains arriving here today brought many pieces of field artillery and big guns from eastern points. Under the direction of regular army officers, these big pieces were at once detrained and placed in various advantageous positions.

BATTING RALLY WINS FROM THE CHAMPIONS

Cragen, Nolette and Wright Bat in Three Runs in the Fifth and Win Fast Game for the Widder Shoe Company.

Cragen, Nolette and Wright, by out on a grounder, McPheters to How- getting hits in the fifth inning of the game last evening between the Champions and the Widder Shoe Company, assisted by two free passes from Bill Leary and a sacrifice fly by Mutholland, pushed three runs across the plate and won their game by a score of 4 to 3. It was a fine batting rally, one of the first real ones seen on the local diamond this season and it was all the better as all three hits were clean and the P. A. C. fielders made not the semblance of an error.

There were several exciting plays in the game, two of them being pretty close. Bill Woods proved that he still had his eye and a whip with him when he threw from deep right to the plate, cutting down Mutholland in the third after Nolette had singled, scoring Hodgdon with the Wilder's first run. A fast throw to Charlie Brackett after the putout at the plate by Ralph Brackett, nailed Nolette as he was sliding into the bag.

Mutholland also made a fine play after Ralph Brackett had singled in the third. Bill Brackett, who was on first, attempted to make third and the fast peg, together with Mutholland's good stop, put Bill down, preventing another run. Malloy played a fine fielding game all the way through and his work was rivaled by that of McPheters, C. Brackett and Smith. Ralph Brackett's throwing was as perfect as usual and he kept the runners sticking close to the bags most of the time, Cragen being the only man on the Widder team to be credited with a steal, that coming after Mutholland's sacrifice fly in the last inning.

Hodgdon fanned four of the P. A. C. batters and pussed one, allowing five hits. Bill Leary held out W. S. C. men to three scattered hits in four innings without passing a man, but his one bad inning, the fifth, when he walked two and was hit safely three times, robbed him of a well earned game. The result of the game puts the two teams in a tie position with a percentage of 500.

The Game

1st Inning—McPheters bled to Mutholland in center. G. Leary was struck out. W. Brackett singled and was out at second. Smith to Letch, stealing, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS, NO RUNS. Mutholland bled to McPheters, Letch

BASIL KING SEEKS THE SPIRIT OF AMERICAN LIFE

Basil King, the author of "The Side of the Angels," said in a recent interview that "it is my invariable habit to try and see the spirit behind the phenomena which American life presents, rather than the merely outward aspects of our social and industrial machinery. A thoughtful boyhood in Canada and the reading of books about the early Church, stories of the Crusades, of the Reformation, stories, in short, that made the world and its past very big and wonderful and inspired with romance, gave, he believes, a certain direction to his mind which it has always kept."

Cragen singled to left. Esterbrook was out at first. W. Brackett to Howard on a grounder, Cragen reaching second. Smith and Hodgdon worked Leary for free passes filling the bases. Cragen scored on Mutholland's sacrifice fly to G. Leary. Nolette again singled to center, scoring Smith with the tying run. Wright won the game with a hit to right, scoring Hodgdon. THREE HITS, NO ERRORS, THREE RUNS.

TELEPHONE TO SAN FRANCISCO

Members of Keene Commercial Club Converse With Friends on Pacific Coast.

Keene, July 1.—Nearly 300 people from this city and a few from the neighboring towns enjoyed "transcontinental telephone night at City Hall" this evening. The affair was held under the auspices of the Keene Commercial club, the telephone company co-operating.

Nine hundred receivers were installed at the seats in the hall and each person listened to the conversation between Keene and San Francisco. This is believed to be the first time that a city the size of Keene has ever had this telephone service demonstration, and it is the first time that it has been conducted in New Hampshire.

The conversations of the evening were between President W. C. Campbell of the Keene Commercial club and E. J. Allen, president of the Chamber of Commerce in San Francisco; Acting Mayor D. Herbert James, Jr., and James R. Kelly, Jr., Mayor of San Francisco; Mrs. Martha S. Wentworth of 19 McKinley street to her son in San Francisco; Mrs. La Fall Diehlman, president of the Keene Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. E. K. Black, president of the similar organization in San Francisco; W. F. Holbrook, president of the Keene Development Company, and the head of a wholesale grocery company to Messrs. C. H. Bentley and Holbrook of the Fruit Canners' Association in San Francisco; Don G. G. Shedd to John Dehlin, a former resident of this city, and E. F. Stearns, president of the New Hampshire Jewelers' Association, to Geo. Bailey, president of the Pacific Coast Jewelers' Association. Other speakers on this end were Fred Wentworth, Mrs. G. M. Rosman and W. F. Childs.

In addition to the transcontinental conversations, the audience listened to talks delivered by E. K. Hall of Boston, president of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., and by P. J. Peary, publicity manager of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The first telephone was installed in Keene in 1889, and was a private line between the studio of Jonathan French and his residence. It was set by the P. W. Childs Company, and two of the surviving members of that firm, Major P. W. Childs and Brat Holborn and A. W. Childs of Manchester, N. H., were present tonight.

11.30 parade from the square to the playgrounds led by two bands.
July 4.
12.15 a. m. Bonfire at the playgrounds.
9.30 a. m. Children's sports at the playgrounds.
10.30 a. m. Baseball game between business men and professional men.
10.30 a. m. Ding-and-go-back motor boat races off Portsmouth Yacht Club.
2.30 p. m. Horse races; auto races; sports; Portsmouth Driving Club at Rockingham Park.
3.00 p. m. Rowing races off Portsmouth Yacht Club between crews of the Washington, Montana and San Francisco.
7.00 p. m. Community singing in grand stand at the playgrounds.
8.30 p. m. Fire works and band concert at the playgrounds.

The foregoing is a partial list of the events planned for the celebration of the Fourth of July and the evening before the Fourth. Practically all of the events are ready at the present moment to be pulled off according to schedule, only a few minor details remaining to be perfected. The plans of the Portsmouth Celebration committee have been directed to the general fun of the night before the Fourth and these will begin at 8.00 o'clock on the square with band concerts and dancing. Two bands have been engaged and will be kept busy for three hours and a half, together with other forms of amusement.

At 11.30 o'clock the parade will be formed when the march through the streets to the playgrounds will be held. At 12.15 o'clock the monster bonfire will be started, and it is now expected this will be one of the largest ever fired in Portsmouth.

In the morning at the playgrounds the sports for children under 16 years of age will be held, under the direction of Mrs. Donald McNeil. These will include a baseball throw for distance for boys, sack races, wheelbarrow races, 50 and 75 yard dashes, and a number of other novelty stunts and events. The program for the girls' events will be announced through the afternoon papers today, but the committee has been assured that they will be of a nature that will interest the contestants and spectators.

Following the sports for the children one of the regular holiday sports, baseball games will be staged on the playgrounds diamond. This game will be played between two teams; one composed of professional men, (including physicians, lawyers, dentists and others) and the other team composed of business men of the city. It is expected that twenty or more men will be on each team in order to allow the substitution of players should any of them become unable to continue the game after starting.

In the evening, under the direction of Mrs. McNeil, Miss Goodwin and Miss Wright, the Community Singing will be held at 7.00 o'clock. The singers will be seated in the grandstand at the playgrounds and will include members of the Portsmouth Girls' Club, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and others. The singing will be led by instrumental music and a capable musician has been secured as the director. This afternoon at 4.00 o'clock a rehearsal will be held for the singing at the Y. M. C. A.

The band concert for the evening will be started at 8.00 o'clock and will continue until the fireworks have been set off. The evening's entertainment, including the fireworks and the concert is the city's contribution to the celebration and the committee has been assured that the fireworks are the best that money could obtain.

The committee has taken into consideration the wishes and advice of many of the business men and citizens of Portsmouth to hold a safe, sane and conservative celebration, because of the crisis which is now confronting the country. The request is reasonable and the committee has not only considered the suggestion but has heartily endorsed the recommendations. Amly believing that the idea is a sound and sensible one.

In the evening it is the hope of the members of the committee that a large number of the fun-lovers will attend the celebration on the square in costume. The idea of dancing in the open air is one of the novelties and that in itself should be a feature that needed little or no urging for the young and old to take part in. Portsmouth has shown the way to other cities in this section of New England what can be done in the way of municipal celebration and this year is to see no failure.

STATE BOARD OF TRADE WILL MEET JULY 5

The New Hampshire Board of Trade will hold a special meeting in the rooms of the Concord Board of Trade, at 10 o'clock of the morning of July 5. The meeting is a very important one and should mean much, not only to the New Hampshire Board of Trade, but to every community in the state.

At the May meeting in Newport a special committee was appointed to recommend ways and means of carrying out the provision in the new constitution which provides that the New Hampshire Board of Trade may employ a business manager who shall devote his entire time to the organization. This committee will bring forth a recommendation at this special meeting which will mean increased finances and a greatly enlarged scope of work. It is the determination of those interested in this work to make of the New Hampshire Board of Trade an organization which will be a vital element in the development of every community in the state and the initiator and force behind state-wide campaigns for New Hampshire welfare. The organization will be for each community and commercial and civic organization which the local commercial and civic organizations are to local business.

At this meeting there will also be discussed the possibility of making state-wide the movement recently initiated by the Manchester Publicity Association and Chamber of Commerce to advance the clock one hour during the summer months in order to save an hour of daylight. This is a movement which is evidently going through in Manchester; it has awakened much interest in other parts of New Hampshire. The movement has all the elements of great benefit, but the movement should embrace all communities.

AUSTRIA WILL BE ABSORBED BY GERMANY

London, June 30.—A despatch to the Times from Budapest says the draft of an important treaty of alliance between Germany and Austria-Hungary has just been completed at Berlin and signed by Prince Ernest von Thoen and Langenburg on behalf of Austria-Hungary and Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Imperial Chancellor, on behalf of Germany.

The treaty, which is for twenty-five years, says the correspondent, provides for the unification of direction of military and foreign affairs while regarding economic questions it provides for concerted action in dealing with foreign countries, interstate relations being left outside its scope. The administration of the treaty will be under a committee to consist of members delegated by the Federal council on behalf of Germany and by the Austro-Hungarians. The treaty will not be submitted to the Austrian or Hungarian Parliaments for ratification, as it is treated as a foreign affair and under the sole responsibility of the crown.

STRANGER REPORTS LOSS OF MEMORY TO POLICEMAN

LETTER IN HIS POSSESSION MAY BE THE MEANS OF IDENTIFYING
MAN WHO APPEARED TO OFFICER CONDON

Last evening a stranger, apparently a Jew, stopped Police Officer Condon on duty on Congress street, telling him a strange tale. He asserted that he had no idea where he was, where he came from or who he was. He said that he would like to be taken care of until his memory returned. The officer took the man to the station where he was questioned at some length but he failed to shed any light on the mystery nor could he tell how long he had been in that condition.

Among some papers in his pockets was found a letter to "Dear David," written in Minneapolis, and signed "Narmitz." The letter was not enclosed in an envelope but was loose in his pocket, but from the contents it is believed by the officers of the department that the letter was written by the man's brother.

The man was allowed to remain at the station for some little time for safekeeping but at the request of Philip Halpin he was permitted to go to the latter's home for the night. Mr. Halpin is in hopes of being able to identify the man by corresponding with the signer of the letter.

On the complaint of a citizen of Chelsea, Mass., Affamus Pryblich, a Russian, and Mrs. Ida Dula, were arrested last evening on a warrant charging them with a statutory offense. They were taken from a house on Morning street where they had been living for some time as man and wife.

According to the story told to the authorities by the Chelsea man the couple were arrested more than a year ago in that city on a charge of living together and not being married. Pryblich has a wife and a family living in Russia and it was on the complaint of his wife that he had been arrested in the Massachusetts city. The case was set to be heard in the Chelsea Police Court and the man making the complaint to the local officers had bailed both Mrs. Dula, a widow, and Pryblich, placing $150.00

Why Spend your Money, "with a Spade"?

THIRIFT does not mean Penuriousness! Its first principle consists in getting FULL VALUE for each Dollar of income expended.

Getting less is not complimentary to the intelligence of even a Millionaire. Being liberal and generous, in affairs where it is proper and deliberate to be so, differs widely from being thrifless, thoughtless and careless in buying things, on a business basis.

A habit of "Jumping at Conclusions," instead of Thinking out these Conclusions, costs many a man a lifetime of Un-success.

TOO many Americans indolently act upon the shallow theory that an article "must be" WORTH more, merely because it Costs more.

They are thus taxed a heavy price, all through life, for such an indolent habit of thought.

They work hard, industriously and intelligently, to acquire money.

Then (for their personal needs) they "Spend it with a Spade."

Is this complimentary to the judgment of even the Wealthiest?

Do people become Wealthy who acquire the careless HABIT of "Spend Money," instead of intelligent, thoughtful BUYING with it?

MONEY cannot make BETTER Fabric Tires,—at ANY price,—than Goodrich 47-Year Experience,—300,000,000 lbs. Purchasing-Power, and Deliberate Intention, are now producing. No Rubber Concern in the world could afford to offer the low Fair-List Prices here quoted, on Fabric Tires (for such HIGH quality) without the enormous Goodrich VOLUME, which reduces Costs as to make these lowest prices possible.

When, therefore, you pay MORE than these Goodrich Fair-List prices for ANY Fabric Tire, you are NOT getting "better" Tires.

Test out Goodrich Tires,—and seal THE B. F. GOODRICH CO. Akron, O.

Portsmouth, N. H., Saturday, July 1, 1916.

Let Us Be Consistent.

A great deal has been said of late about the abominableness of the hyphen. Candidates, other public speakers and the newspapers have emphasized the propriety and necessity of laying aside nationality in politics if we are to have a nation of Americans, interested in a common cause and country, and not an aggregation of bunches of voters governed by racial ties and prejudices.

This is sound doctrine, and it is therefore regrettable to see thus early in the campaign evidence that it is not to be lived up to by at least some of the papers that have been preaching it. One prominent newspaper has already come out in an attempt to show why the Jewish vote should support one of the presidential candidates. A great deal is being said about the position of the German vote in the campaign. With this sort of talk thus early, how long is it likely to be before we shall be hearing which way the Irish, the Italian and the Polish votes are going?

The time to stop this sort of thing is now. A president is to be elected in a few months and he should be elected by American citizens, as such, and not by bunches of voters held together by prejudices of race or religion. There should be no such thing as a Jewish vote, a German vote or any other kind of vote but that of American citizens absolutely untagged.

Since the outbreak of the foreign war there have been conditions in this country which emphasize the danger and impropriety of so-called hyphenism. It is possible that in the excitement of the hour the danger has been magnified, yet there is no escaping the fact that under such a government as that of the United States racial feeling should never be manifested at the ballot box. The man who casts a vote should be known as an American citizen and nothing else.

For this reason any attempt to represent that there is such a thing as a Jewish vote or a German vote is out of place and entirely inexcusable, especially on the part of those who have been emphasizing the heinousness of the hyphen. There has been too much of this sort of thing in the past and it is time to abandon the practice forever. The agitation against the hyphen is sound and should be continued rather than abandoned. It is to be hoped that little further will be heard about what voters of this, that or the other race are going to do in the coming campaign. If we are to vote as American citizens we must talk as American citizens, and it is for men and newspapers of standing and influence to lead the way.

Madison Square Garden in New York city is in the hands of a receiver. A few years ago there was talk of wiping it out entirely, but it seems that it has hung on and been doing business, though not successfully. Otherwise it would not now be in a receiver's hands. It is to be hoped that the troubles can be patched up, for in New York with all its attractions there would be something lacking without Madison Square Garden.

The government is now in the market for horses and mules for army use. If trouble with Mexico comes it may be found that shipments of mules and horses to the allies have been plenty large enough for the good of this country. Shouting for preparedness and at the same time shipping abroad so much that helps to constitute preparedness is one of the anomalies of the present time.

New York insurance companies have arranged special premiums on policies issued to national guardsmen, so that the men can go to the front well protected by insurance. If there were any way to insure their safe return the policies would command high premiums.

The picnic season is at hand, but the weather thus far has been such as to greatly discourage this form of summer activity. But better days are coming and the youngsters and their elders will yet have their innings and their outings before the season closes.

A Missouri minister has resigned his pastorate because the members of the church smoke at their informal meetings. This seems to be a clear case of being "smoked out."

It is difficult to see how preparedness can be made an issue in the coming campaign. All parties are for it.

The face of the sun looks good when it shows itself these days.

Why the Discrimination?

Mr. Editor:—I live on one of the most traveled streets in the city, viz., Hanover street. While other streets in the city, such as Fleet, Daniel and Chapel, have been drenched with oil, our street has so far been neglected and this morning the dust was blowing so that life was practically unbearable on the street. Why the discrimination? WARD ONE.

CURRENT OPINION

War Has Enhanced Our Opportunities for Trade With China.

The European war has created a new trade situation in the world and has dislocated business and industry in Europe. In consequence the burden of supplying the markets in the far east has largely fallen upon Americans.

The enhanced interest of the United States in the trade of Asia, coupled with the great commercial and industrial awakening now sweeping over China, is an auspicious sign.

In my opinion, it indicates the vital part these two countries will play to unfold the future of the Pacific ocean as the greatest commercial highway of the world.

No two countries could be better qualified than the United States and China to co-operate with each other economically. The wise use of water and electric power and labor saving machinery in the United States has ever increased the output of her farms, mills, factories and foundries. To dispose of the goods made with such rapidity and ease Americans not only need a big market, but they require a demand that will increase with their increasing output. China offers such a market.—By Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, Chinese Minister to the United States.

THE HERALD HEARS

That some of the stories that have been told in years past, have not had a drop of the dust layer this year.

That three men of the First Company C. A. C., declined to take the Federal oath.

That Portsmouth merchants did a lively business today. Good weather will do it every day.

That the new dairy lunch room on Daniel street will open this month.

That the board of health should look over the rear of Sudbury street.

That political candidates always get what is coming to them sooner or later.

That local boarding houses are doing a rushing business.

That the confetti will fly in all directions on Monday night.

That the city of Blodford gets Barnum and Bailey's Circus on July 4.

That several special police officers will do duty with the regulars on Monday night and Tuesday.

That a Stratham farmer claims the largest sized strawberries in this section.

That the boys on Sagamore avenue and other nearby locations are expecting a banquet on the dedication of the new flag pole.

That the patriotic owner of the big attack that flies Old Glory says there will be no cats but he may give them a trip to the Shocks and back.

That the city clerk issued but one marriage license this week.

That the new water rates are still the object of good, reasonable strong kicking on the part of property owners.

That the girls who wear red, white and blue hosiery are certainly patriotic but the colors attract more than a passing glance.

That the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks are already talking up their annual field day which cannot be beat by any branch of the order in the country.

That Dan Cupid is now turning to the American war bride and we will have Europe beat if he keeps on.

That many men drink hot water, but they never get it over the bar.

That a lively fight is promised in the separation of the town of Salisbury from the Salisbury Beach section.

That one of the Press Club may yet push a pencil on the Mexican border.

That rubber was introduced into the U. S. in 1800.

That this, however, does not include the neck variety.

That a Dutchman says ten cents a day will support a family in Java.

That this certainly will not include auto joy-riding; neither will it affect emigration from the good old U. S. A.

ELOPE ON FREIGHT TRAIN

Young Bridal Couple Take Novel Honeymoon Trip.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 1.—Riding on the bumpers of a freight train for a novel honeymoon experience, Mr. and Mrs. John Lopez and the groomsmen, Thomas Martha of New York, reached this city and were arrested for train riding, while making their morning ablutions in the Chango river.

The couple produced a marriage certificate issued by the deputy city clerk in the Bronx last Wednesday. The bride and bridegroom said it was a honeymoon.

She lived at 726 East One Hundred and Thirty-Seventh street, the Bronx, the bridegroom at 300 East One Hundred and Forty-Third street and Martha at 107 Holmes avenue. Each is 19 years old.

They had planned the elopement and freight train ride for the excitement as Lopez desired to reach Chicago and she was delighted with the novel experience. They boarded a freight train in Jersey City and were two days coming to Binghamton.

The bride is a pretty blonde and devoted to her husband. At 101 Jervis she nearly fell under the wheels in boarding a moving train.

The trio are held awaiting developments.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR STATE ROAD

Provides for Two Miles on Rockingham Highway in Manchester.

Concord, July 1.—Commissioner Frederick E. Everett of the state highway department has awarded the contract to build two miles of the Rockingham road to Manchester, to Small and Ingall of Bar Harbor, Me. The contract calls for $19,905 for the two miles of bituminous macadam road which means the larger part of the state road in Manchester. Work will begin in about ten days.

Bids were opened by Commissioner Everett on this stretch of road some weeks ago, but all were too high. In the commissioner's opinion and were rejected.

WHAT ABOUT IT?

We hate to knock, and far be it from us to start anything, but we have been wondering for some time what our old friend Newton Newkirk would do for his All Sorts col. If couldn't get a few country newspapers on his staff.

Would a man be in line for membership in the Hornet Club if his mother-in-law decided to pay him a visit for the entire season? We don't ask this from personal interest, but a friend wants to know.

How About Some of the Pork? Houston Post: We fancy that the troops from Massachusetts and New Hampshire want to be assigned to the duty of defending the Rio Grande watermelon patches, but unless chosen for this noble detail must show a clean Democratic record.

The boys who have been shipped to the Mexican border from the east may not see a great deal of fighting, but if their experience teaches them that the country is very much unprepared for a defensive war they may be able on their return to convince some of their representatives in Congress that the people are tired of seeing their money going into the pork barrel.

Carranza has decided that he does not know how to play poker. Mr. Wilson called his bluff and he released the twenty-three troopers of the 10th Cavalry even if he didn't write a new note about the situation. And Pershing is still camping with the rest of his men somewhere in Mexico.

Our idea of nothing to do is attempting to secure assistance from others in carrying out plans for a municipal celebration.

It has been suggested that Henry of Detroit and W. J. H. might take a try at settling the differences existing between Carranza and Villa. They couldn't make any greater successes of failure than they have done in the past.

NIGHTS OF UNREST

No Sleep, No Rest, No Peace With a Lame or Aching Back.

Wear the lot of many a kidney sufferer.

Pain and distress from morn to night.

Get up with a lame back.

Twinges of backache bother you all day.

Dull aching breaks your rest at night.

Urinary disorders add to your misery.

If you have kidney trouble, reach the cause—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only—

Have made an enviable reputation in Portsmouth.

Mrs. Robert W. Whitney, 185 Marcy St., Portsmouth, says: "Hearing-down pains took me so severely across the small of my back that while they lasted, I couldn't breathe. My kidneys were very irregular in action and the kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me great annoyance. Morning when I got up, I felt all worn-out and exhausted. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief. I always keep them on hand in case of necessity."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Whitney had. Foster-McBarn, Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MODERN CIRCUS ELIMINATES FOOL-HARDY, DARE-DEVIL STUNTS

The call of the calliope is soon to be heard here, for the Barnum & Bailey Circus will spread his acres of canvas in Portsmouth Wednesday, July 5th, giving afternoon and night performances with a two-mile long street parade the morning of that day.

A safe and sane circus in which no pretty girl is shot from the cannon's mouth or hunted through the air in an automobile, and in which the slide for life on a wire from the top of the tent is done by a trained white cat holding a rat in its mouth, is what is promised by this circus featuring the perfection of Barnum and Bailey.

The greatest show on earth has undergone a great change since the days of compelling complexities of alluring alterations on posters, and death-defying, dare-devil doings inside the big tent. No longer does a beauty stick her head in the mouth of a roaring beast.

The whole show has been softened and sweetened. The appeal of beauty and skill has taken the place of the lure of sensation, so that now the circus is a happier place for everybody.

None of the old-time glitter and glamor will be lacking, and the traditions that keep the circus a national institution will all be there to preserve the atmosphere. The ringmaster's whip will crack as of yore; the steam calliope whop and whistle, bringing with it the twink of grasshopper's song.

and dusty country roads; the high school horses will prance and pose, and there will be a horse ballerina; fox terriers and baboons will emulate the feats of their human colleagues; bespangled equestriennes will ride dappled horses, but in the whole circus there will not be a shudder, although there will be much to make the pulse beat faster and to arouse enthusiasm. Among the new features, and perhaps the most obvious change from sensation to beauty, will be a remarkable series of living sculpture groups in which snow-white horses, ponies and dogs, together with human beings whitened to the color of marble pose with all the rigidity of granite.

Other new features include a glorious pageant descriptive of Persia and the stories of the "Thousand and One Nights"—roller skating and bicycle riding bears, trained rats, cats and doves in perfectly neutral performances, somersaulting parrots and chickens who walk the tight rope and ride bikes, an elephant brass band, a real Chinese circus, James Teddy, world's champion jumper, and many new wrinkles in all fields of arena skill. The performances will be given under the largest spread of canvas ever hoisted and the entire affair is said to represent the most perfect circus ever devised.

In their island republic. What's that about biting the hand?

Vincent Lawrence of the Boston Traveler, who writes and plays some pretty fine golf, may have an opportunity to say something about the New Hampshire Wizard next week as Mr. Oubart is playing him at the Portsmouth Country Club on Sunday.

STATE OFFICERS OF THE A. O. H. MEET

Rev. J. P. Moran Advocates Home for Aged Hibernians.

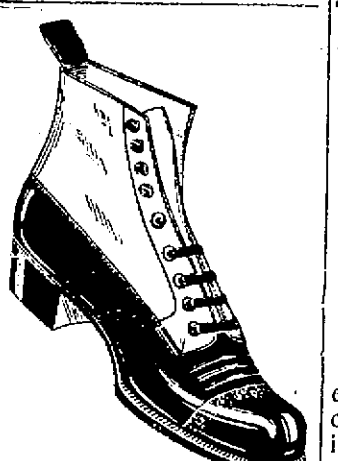

The state officers of the A. O. H., recently met at Concord and voted to hold the biennial state convention on August 29 in the same city. Three halls have been engaged and plans for the entertainment of the delegates were outlined by Eugene Callahan, president of the Merrimack County Hibernians, and Jeremiah J. Crowley, president of Division One of Concord. The convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary of which Miss Mary Murphy of Manchester is the president will be held in Concord at the same time.

The National A. O. H. convention will be held in Boston at the Cony Plaza the week of July 17 and all the state officers who met in Concord will attend as delegates. Committees were appointed to secure hotel accommodations, also to draft certain proposed changes in the constitution which are favored in this state.

One of the propositions much in favor is to establish a home for the aged Hibernians. This idea originated in New Hampshire and through the efforts of the state chaplains, Rev. John P. Moran of Portsmouth, at the convention in Chicago four years ago this matter received favorable consideration. The vote taken, however did not fix a time for action and it is hoped to make definite revision at this year's convention.

Father Moran addressed the state board meeting, which was presided over by president Edward J. Gallagher. Among those present were Vice President Joseph Flanagan of Dover, Secretary Walter P. Mullen of Manchester, Treasurer Arthur W. Spring of Laconia, and County Presidents Eugene Callahan of Concord, Daniel Sullivan of Nashua and Frank O'Brien of Portsmouth. Jeremiah J. Crowley, state chairman of Irish history was also in attendance. The next meeting will be held in Boston, prior to the national convention.

The reunion concluded its celebration with a dancing party, adjourning at midnight; the return trip being made on special cars. The reunion was under the direction of this committee, Bailey Van Ness Emery, Leslie W. Leavitt and Miss Margaret Marston.

OLD LANDMARK PURCHASED

Original Building to Be Presented to Phillips-Exeter Academy.

Exeter, July 1.—By a deed sent to record Friday, Harry C. and Charles E. Williams for $1 and upwards convey to Guy Marchie of Boston land and buildings on Upper Front street. In this purchase Mr. Marchie is acting as chairman of a committee of the class of 1911 of Phillips-Exeter.

The property in part comprises a two-story wooden building, which originally standing on Academy street was from 1783 to 1791 the academy's first recitation building. In it Lewis Cass and others of subsequent distinction were trained.

At a reunion in Exeter on June 2, in celebration of its 25th anniversary, the matter of a gift to the class of 1911 to the academy was thoroughly discussed and its committee was finally directed to purchase the old building, remove it to a suitable site and restore it.

From its sentimental value the trustees have assured the class that its gift will be most welcome.

PILLORY FOR WIFE BEATERS

Kansas City, Mo., July 1.—The pillory, slightly changed, but the same in effect, is to be resurrected from the old Puritan days and set up again in Kansas City, Kansas. Wife beaters will find themselves its victims.

Judge J. H. Brady, police judge of that city was granted permission today to erect a post on a corner of the main business district, to which men convicted of beating their wives could be chained for any number of days the court may fix.

"The shame of being seen, labelled as a wife beater, will prevent such crimes, I believe," the judge explained.

POLICE DEPARTMENT PLACE MORE SIGNALS

Lanterns Could Easily Be Lighted by Electricity at Night.

Two more street signals have been placed by the police department, one at the corner of Derr and Vaughan streets and the other at the junction of South street and Sagamore avenue. The several signals in different sections of the city should be lighted by electricity at night, which would mean no more expense and save considerable extra work on the part of the police. The lighting could be easily arranged by a feed wire to the lamp and from the center of the street the same as in many other cities where such traffic signals are located on the highway.

A BUSY PLACE.

Heavy Travel on B. & M. Makes Much Work at Local Station.

The Boston & Maine railroad depot in this city was a busy place on Saturday morning as train travel was exceptionally heavy. The train due here for Portland at 10:10 was in two sections, the first being composed of 12 cars, mostly Pullmans, in charge of Conductor G. A. Silbace. The second was composed of nine cars and was in charge of Conductor Sanborn. The train for North Conway consisted of ten cars in charge of Conductor Winslow and was drawn by two locomotives. The train for Portland due to leave here at 11:18, consisted of 12 well laden cars. The train due to leave here at 10:43 for Boston was unusually heavy. Owing to this train and the first section of the Bar Harbor express each having a hot box, some delay was experienced at this station while the boxes were repacked. The afternoon trains from Boston to Portland was also run in two sections.

BRAKEMAN INJURED.

Struck a Switch While Riding on Side of Locomotive.

Frank Bulkuier of 480 Market street, a yard brakeman for the Boston and Maine railroad was injured this morning in the local yard. The accident occurred while he was standing on the side steps of a switching engine, his body striking a switch, badly bruising the left thigh. He was removed to the depot baggage room and later to his home where Dr. John J. Berry was called. The physician found no bones broken and looks for no bad results.
